European Student Research Day

2nd September 2007
University of the Arts Berlin

European Student Research Day

The International Music Therapy Institute Berlin e.V. (IMB) would like to invite you all to participate in a European Student Research day at the Institute for Music Therapy, University of the Arts Berlin (UdK) on Sunday, 2nd of September 2007. This event will happen prior to the Symposium for Qualitative Music Therapy Research in Sauen, which is organised by the IMB (the International Music Therapy Institute Berlin).

At the student day, music therapy students and students of related disciplines can get together, discuss topics of interest and participate in workshops run by internationally acclaimed music therapy experts.

IMB - International Music Therapy Institute Berlin e.V.

The International Music Therapy Institute Berlin e.V. (IMB) is an associated Institute of the University of the Arts, Berlin and was founded in 2001.

It supports music therapy in practice, research and training and contributes to the public health care by exclusively acting for non-profit reasons.

By its diverse measures, the IMB develops an innovative and international network for music therapy. For ten years, its predecessor, the Workgroup for Qualitative Music Therapy Research, has been organising the International Symposium for Qualitative Music Therapy Research.
